Charles W. Neeley was recently selected to serve as the new President/CEO of the Nevada County Economic Resource Council. Chuck comes to the Council having recently retired as a brigadier general from the Air Force Reserve with over 32 years of service. Well versed in finance, his credentials include an MBA in Finance from Golden Gate University, as well as nine years of banking experience in Sacramento, where he last worked as a Vice President at Capital Federal Savings & Loan. He brings fresh perspectives to the Council and promises to build on the successes achieved by his predecessor, Mr. Larry Burkhardt.

The Nevada County Economic Resource Council (ERC) is a non-profit, economic development corporation. As a public/private partnership comprised of business, government and education, it represents our community's best efforts to support local job creation and economic opportunity. The mission of the Council is to enhance the economic vitality of Nevada County by supporting the retention, creation, and attraction of primary jobs while retaining our unique environment.
